

Compilation - WORLD - TRADITIONAL

Etnisk Musikkklubb is a record company running the EM label. It releases and distributes music by Norwegian Folk Music Performers, many of whom have been first prize winner within their fields, as well as multicultural artists of international stature mostly situated in Norway. We are currently expanding our business with regards to quality, international export and distribution for the EM label. Local music is global music. Our production has a common profile with the world's ethnic repertoire. We believe that our World Music assortment, and the traditional genuine Norwegian album, will add some variation to the World Music repertoire from an area of the world still considered "undiscovered" by many music lovers. One goal with this compilation is to stimulate and rekindle interest in the original recordings amongst
